Re: SENIOR CITIZENS LAW PROJECT Advisory Board
Resignation from Board Position
via regular mail and facsimile: 384-0314

Dear Sheri:

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you and the City of Las Vegas on the SENIOR CITIZENS LAW PROJECT Advisory Board. I have accepted a position with SILVERMAN DECARIA AND KATTELMAN in Reno and expect to start in the near future after wrapping up matters with the WILICK LAW GROUP. Although I could commit to continued service from Reno, I understand the rules of service require that I reside in Las Vegas.

I have secured two lawyers expressing interest in service to the SCLP to ease the transition; their resumes are attached. Catherine Mazzeo is a new associate with SOLOMON DWIGGINS & FREER, headed up by Mark Solomon. Susan Myers is returning in August to LIONEL SAWYER & COLLINS from the NEW JERSEY CASINO CONTROL COMMISSION; she was Mark Solomon's long time litigation associate when he was with his former firm, LIONEL SAWYER & COLLINS. Additionally, while I have not approached her about the opening, Elyse Tyrell of TRENT & TYRELL may be interested.

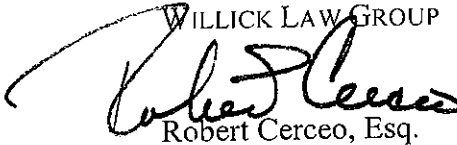

I will remain available to assist as a long time friend to both you and the Project. July will be a transition month, and I can be reached at bobcerceo@aol.com during this period, and then at the new office after August 1.

Thank you again for your faith in me at the start of my career when very few doors were open, and for allowing me to contribute these many years later as a Board member.

Sincerely yours,

WILICK LAW GROUP
